PROFESSIONAL SNAPSHOT

An experienced educator with 27 years of teaching experience, committed to making history engaging, interactive, and relevant. Teaching is enriched through quizzes, debates, discussions, and activity-based methods that encourage curiosity, critical thinking, and active participation. Study tours and field visits to historical sites provide students with opportunities to connect classroom learning with real-world experiences. Historical films and documentaries are also integrated to bring the past to life and deepen understanding. A range of creative and experiential activities further supports meaningful learning and fosters a lasting interest in history.
